

AVAILABLE POSITIONS QULLIQ ENERGY CORPORATION

Qulliq Energy Corporation generates electricity and develops energy options under the trade name of Nunavut Power, and is responsible for meeting the electricity needs of the citizens of Nunavut. The Corporation also operates the Nunavut Energy Centre, addressing electrical supply and energy issues for all Nunavummiut. The Corporation is headquartered in Baker Lake and has an Executive Office in Iqaluit.

Interested applicants are invited to apply for the following positions:

REVENUE ACCOUNTING MANAGER – BAKER LAKE, NU

Reporting to the Director of Finance, the Revenue Accounting Manager is responsible for all aspects of revenue management for the Corporation. Primary responsibilities include responsibility for the accuracy and timeliness of utility billing and related collection activity, onsite and remote supervision of staff, supporting and developing the customer service functions of the corporation and providing support to the Director of Finance. Limited travel is required in this role.

JOURNEYMAN DIESEL MECHANIC – CAMBRIDGE BAY, NU

Reporting to the Operations and Maintenance Supervisor, the Diesel Mechanic will provide journeyman level mechanical work in support of diesel generators and associated equipment including engines, pumps, compressors, radiators, heat exchangers, lube oil systems, fuel oil systems, cooling systems, vehicles and other mechanical equipment for the Regional Operations. Incumbent must be willing to travel within the northern areas by small aircraft.

Complete job postings, qualifications required and application procedures are available on our website at www.nunavutpower.com.

Qulliq Energy Corporation encourages applications by Nunavut Land Claims Agreement Beneficiaries